The Building Healthy Communities (BHC) wants Youth in the South Sacramento community to help make these changes happen and more.

What will this leadership position entail and how will it impact your community?

The Youth in these positions will have a say in the funding of local community projects. You as a Youth will be in charge of making recommendations to South Sacramento HUB on issues relevant to Youth.

We need your voice and input.!!!
What is the Building Healthy Communities (BHC) project?
Building healthy communities (BHC) is a 10-year, $1-billion plan of The California Endowment. South Sacramento was one of 14 communities chosen in taking action to make where they live healthier. We are doing this by improving employment opportunities, education, housing, neighborhood safety, unhealthy environmental conditions, access to healthy foods and more. The goal: to create places where children are healthy, safe and ready to learn.

How will these Leadership positions have an impact for youth?
Their voice will have a say in the funding of local community projects. Youth will be in charge of making recommendations to South Sacramento HUB on issues relevant to youth. Youth in the steering committee will engage in their community and be part of local research on policy and other local youth initiatives to help bring change to the South Sacramento Community. They will be trained to be part of the larger committee that over sees the local BHC initiative. We are looking for Youth to be

Youth will have the chance to grow academically, be engaged in critical thinking activities, learn public speaking, writing and other skills that will boost academic performance, work force preparation, and Youth will also have the chance to meet with community organizers, non-profits, and local politicians in order to have hands on training on community work.
