

Unity Circle Mission, Vision, and Values Statements

March 2017

Vision, and Values Statement Content

#1

Racism continues to divide our community. By creating a safe space the Unity Circle brings people together to promote Respect, Trust and Peace for everyone. Through Communication and Partnership, the Unity Circle will center on equity issues that impact our community.

Vision: Connecting across racial lines

#2

The system of racism continues to be a tool used to divide our communities. By creating a safe space the Unity Circle promotes respect, trust and peace for everyone. Through Advocacy, Education and Economic Development the Unity Circle will center of the equity issues the impact communities of color.

Mission Statement Options

Option #1

The Unity Circle promotes peace, trust, and respect among communities of color through advocacy, education , and economic development.

Option #2

The Unity Circle engages in communication and partnership to promote peace, trust, and respect for everyone.

Option #3

The Unity Circle brings communities of color together to promote advocacy, education, communication, and economic development.

Option #4

The Unity Circle brings communities of color together in peace respect, and trust to address equity issues that affect our people.

Option #5

We resist systemic racism by creating safe spaces for communities of color to engage in policy advocacy, education, and economic development.

Option #6

We promote and advocate for communication and partnership among communities of color in order to address inequity issues that result from systemic racism.

Option #7

The Unity Circle connects people across racial lines through advocacy, education and economic development to reduce the effects of system racism on communities of color.

Option #8

We advocate for education, economic development, communication and partnership among communities of color in order to reverse the adverse effects of systemic racism.

Option #9

The Unity Circle resists the effects of systemic racism by creating safe spaces for communities of color to engage in education, advocacy and economic development opportunities to reinforce the gifts of peace, trust, and respect for everyone.

Option #10

We bring communities of color together to resist the adverse effects of systemic racism, and use advocacy, education and economic development to address issues of inequity that affect our people.